About GPM

Gabriel Project Mumbai (GPM) is a community-led development organization that creates innovative and comprehensive solutions to the problems of extreme poverty by working with vulnerable communities in urban slums and under-served rural tribal villages of Maharashtra, India. Established in 2012, GPM addresses root causes of poverty while serving the urgent issues faced by vulnerable communities. GPM provides a comprehensive array of holistic, grass-roots programs to address immediate and long-term impacts of extreme poverty. These include issues of malnutrition, child labor, disease, hunger, hygiene, literacy, livelihood, clean water, farming technologies, and community development. GPM aims to help create a world in which all people are able to live and thrive in their homes, their work, and their communities.

About JDC

Join The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), the world's leading Jewish humanitarian assistance organization. JDC works in around 70 countries and in Israel to alleviate hunger and hardship, rescue Jews in danger, create lasting connections to Jewish life, and help Israel overcome the social challenges of its most vulnerable citizens, both Jewish and non-Jewish.
